SACRAMENTO NATIVE BEGINS NMMC FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENCY PROGRAM

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—Paul A. Bohnen, M.D., of Sacramento, Calif. is one of six residents who recently began their family medicine residency at the North Mississippi Medical Center Family Medicine Residency Center in Tupelo.

“The family medicine residency training program emphasizes quality medical education through traditional medical and surgical rotations. The program’s quality is also enhanced by a broad-based curriculum in family medicine in the NMMC Family Medicine Residency Center and in rural rotations throughout North Mississippi Medical Clinics,” said Edward Hill, M.D., interim residency director. “Our primary goal is to increase the number of board-certified family physicians in Mississippi, and this program is leading us in that direction.”

Dr. Bohnen graduated from Sacramento State University with a bachelor’s degree in biological sciences and a minor in chemistry. He received a master’s degree in applied physiology from Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science in North Chicago, Ill., where he also completed his medical training.

He is the son of Mollyn and Robert Bohnen of Sacramento.
