

February 25, 2010
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH PHOTO
CONTACT: GENIE ALICE CAUSEY
(662) 377-2371

TUPELO, Miss.—Kathy Tucker (left), an educator at HealthWorks!, gives 15-month-old Jameson McCreary of Tupelo, a children’s book and sticker during his recent stay at North Mississippi Medical Center. Jameson’s dad, James McCreary, even wore a HealthWorks! signature “whappy” hat for the photo. HealthWorks! representatives visited pediatric patients at NMMC to help brighten their stay in the hospital.

-30-

February 25, 2010
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH PHOTO
CONTACT: GENIE ALICE CAUSEY
(662) 377-2371

TUPELO, Miss.—Kathy Tucker (left), an educator at HealthWorks!, gives 12-year-old Brooklyn Murry of Ingomar a HealthWorks! signature “whappy” hat and a new ruler and pencil during her recent stay at North Mississippi Medical Center. HealthWorks! representatives visited pediatric patients at NMMC to help brighten their stay in the hospital.

-30-

February 25, 2010
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH PHOTO
CONTACT: GENIE ALICE CAUSEY
(662) 377-2371

TUPELO, Miss.—Kathy Tucker (left) and Emily Guyton, HealthWorks! educators, recently visited pediatric patients at North Mississippi Medical Center, including 4-year-old Philip Steele and his mother, DeeAnn, of Pontotoc. They brought HealthWorks! signature “whappy” hats, stuffed toys, pencils, rulers and books with them to help brighten the children’s hospital stay.

-30-