NMMC-HAMILTON AWARDS
$1,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

HAMILTON, Ala.—Each year, the North Mississippi Medical Center-Hamilton Auxiliary awards scholarships to employees or employees' family members who are pursuing a degree in the medical field. This year's recipients of $500 each are:

- Katie Palmer, who is currently attending Shelton State Community College, pursuing a degree in nursing. Palmer, who also serves as an Ambassador, is the daughter of NMMC-Hamilton administrative assistant Nancy Palmer.
- LaQueesha Poe, who is currently attending Northwest Shoals Community College, pursuing a degree in physical therapy, Poe, who is also a member of the NWSCC Softball Team, is the sister of employee Quanesha Ester.

“We are proud to be a part of your educational journey,” said Mahalia Enlow, president of the NMMC-Hamilton Auxiliary. “Good luck and congratulations to both of you on behalf of the NMMC-Hamilton Auxiliary.”

Members of the Auxiliary scholarship committee are Enlow, Phyllis Peterson and Calvalene Seely.
