NMMC-IUKA AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

IUKA, Miss.—North Mississippi Medical Center-Iuka has awarded $1,000 college scholarships to LeAnne Vogel and Destany Martinez, seniors at Tishomingo County High School.

Martinez is the daughter of Robert and Sarah Largent. She has been involved in the Spanish Club, Anchor Club and FCCLA (Future Career and Community Leaders of America). She has been a cheerleader at Tishomingo County High School for three years. She is currently employed at Casabella's Furniture in Corinth.

Martinez plans to attend the University of Alabama in pursuit of a bachelor's degree in nursing.

Vogel is the daughter of Tim and Evette Vogel. She has been involved in the Beta Club, Future Business Leaders of America, the Foreign Language Club, Anchor Club, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Crown Club, Bravada Drama Club and Students Against Destructive Decisions. In addition, she was elected Student Body President for the Student Council her senior year, and has worked on several volunteer projects. She has received recognition for her academic achievements, including being on the honor roll for all four years of high school and participation in the United States Achievement Academy.

Vogel plans to attend Mississippi College to work toward a bachelor's degree in chemistry and pre-pharmacy.

The scholarships are awarded through the Health Care Foundation of North Mississippi to graduating high school seniors pursuing a health care career. Applicants are judged on ACT score, high school transcript, curriculum taken as it pertains to the chosen field, extracurricular activities, letters of recommendation and their personal statements.
