

November 3, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH PHOTOS

CONTACT: DEBORAH ROBERTS PUGH
(662) 377-3712

TUPELO, Miss.—Tupelo Tennis Association raised around $5,500 to benefit Komen North Mississippi for the Cure with the group's first Rally for the Cure tennis tournament, Oct. 16-17. Winners included:

- Men's 3.5 Doubles—David Parker and Mike Baltzer
- Men's 4.0 Doubles—David Parker and Mike Baltzer
- Men's Open Doubles—Joseph Mahaffey and Brandon Harris
- Women's 2.0 Singles—Darlene Castles
- Women's 3.0 Singles—Tracey Coleman
- Women's 2.5 Doubles—Blake Hill and Jackie Newell
- Women's 3.0 Doubles—Shae Crumpton and Angie Stafford
- Women's 3.5 Doubles—Shelley Bristow and Bea Washington
- Women's 4.0 Doubles—Kristie Gholson and Lindsey Collins
- Combined Mixed 6.0 Doubles—Jamie Lindsey and Susanne Lindsey
- Combined Mixed 7.0 Doubles—Timmy Keith and Mandy Keith
- Mixed Open Doubles—Joseph Mahaffey and Brittany Lipscomb

Cutlines:

Breast cancer survivors Liria Frerer and Becky DeMeo both played in the Rally for the Cure tennis tournament.

Jeff Caldwell won Rally for the Cure's fastest serve contest.

Tournament organizers, including Shannon Fryery (left) and Angie Stafford, say several area sponsors helped make the event possible.

Sadie Johnson and Mandy Keith take a break between matches.

Shad Haynes and Timmy Keith compete in the doubles division.

Curtis Brown checks the schedule to make sure everything is running smoothly.