

October 29, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH PHOTOS

CONTACT: DEBORAH ROBERTS PUGH
(662) 377-3712

100 Hour Pins

TUPELO, Miss.—North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services Carla Enis (right) presented 100 hour pins to volunteers (from left) Judy Land, Bobbie Pitts, Martha Smith, Sylvia Kyle and Michael Goins. In addition, 100 hour pins were awarded to Latoya Angle, Kakia Bogan, John Cother, Kate Chesnut, Faye Gable and Dan Waller.

300 Hour Pins

TUPELO, Miss.—North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services Carla Enis (right) presented 300 hour pins to volunteers Sonya Blades, Mary Samuels, Charlotte Thorn and Betty Thomas. Toni Serrano, Ann Stanford and Jean Vickers also received 300 hour pins.

500 & 700 Hour Pins

TUPELO, Miss.—North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services Carla Enis (right) presented service pins to volunteers (from left) Linda Correll, 700 hours; Bonnie Carnathan, 700 hours; Georgia Ledbetter, 500 hours; Dianne Brown, 700 hours; and Esther Brown, 700 hours. Jay Harris and Jewel Lanphere were honored with 500 hour pins, and Virginia Allred and Dorothy Cox received 700 hour pins.

800 Hour Pins

North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services Carla Enis (second from right) presented service pins to volunteers (from left) Clara Jagers, Rick Campeau, Wilma Trice, Edna Twitty and Betty Coward for 800 hours. Other recipients were Nancy Daniels and Don Winders.

1,000 & 1,200 Hour Pins

North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services Carla Enis (right) presented service pins to volunteers (from left) Ruth Baldwin and Grace Gower for 1,000 hours, and to Mary Johnson and Bobby Crumpton for 1,200 hours.

1,500 & 1,800 Hour Pins

North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services Carla Enis (right) presented service pins to Elvira Blanchard, 1,500 hours; and Jeffery Bailey, Jim Bennett and Omie Payne, 1,800 hours. Bobbie Pritchard received a 1,500 hour pin, and Bob Bennett, Jeanette Fandel and Erie Wheeler received 1,800 hour pins.

2,000+ Hour Pins

North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services (right) presented service pins to volunteers (from left) Margret Collins and Myzette Roberts for 2,500 hours, and Joe Potts and Mary Moses for 2,000 hours. Lela Finney was also recognized for 2,000 hours.

3,000+ Hour Pins

North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services (center) presented service pins to volunteers (from left) Sallie Parker for 3,000 hours and Martha Spradling for 9,500 hours. John Castles was recognized for 5,500 hours.

Most Hours

Carla Enis (right), North Mississippi Medical Center's Volunteer Services director, presents Jeffery Bailey, 738 hours; Sallie Parker, 770 hours; Bob Bennett, 850 hours; and Margret Collins, 851 hours, with the Most Volunteer Hours Awards for 2009-2010. Volunteers donated a total of 20,773 hours during the past year.

Jefferson Award

Jeffery Bailey (right), winner of the Jefferson Award for his community service at North Mississippi Medical Center, was recognized Oct. 15 by Carla Enis during NMMC's Volunteer Awards Luncheon. Bailey donated his $250 Jefferson Award prize to the NMMC Volunteer Services Department.

New Volunteers

TUPELO, Miss.—North Mississippi Medical Center honored new and veteran volunteers with a luncheon Oct. 15 at the Summit Center. Director of Volunteer Services Carla Enis (right) presented new volunteer pins to (from left) Bobbie Pitts, Laura Borcicky, Nancy Forrest, Michael Goins, Mary Ann Miller, Phyllis Lendon and Keith Bell. Other new volunteers include Mary Beth Allen, Ginny Altmiller, Latoya Angle, Wynelle Benson, Kakia Bogan, Nelle Bryson, Angela Caldwell, Shannon Carter, Billie Jean Coleman, Wendy Collier, Dana Deaton, Stefanie Delmastro, Jennifer Dickerson, Frieda Foster, Faye Gable, Jackie Garrett, Jean Jacobs, Tonya James, Sylvia Kyle, Judy Land, Mardell Nance, Wiley Nance, Kristen Wilkins Partin, Valerie Patterson, Lauren Reed, Susan Rish, Stephanie Sanford, Dan Waller, Valerie Whitwell and Shelia Witt. For information about volunteer opportunities at NMMC, call (662) 377-3131 or 1-800-THE DESK (1-800-843-3375), or stop by the Volunteer Services office in the hospital lobby between 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.