

May 4, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH PHOTO

CONTACT: DEBORAH ROBERTS PUGH
(662) 377-3712

TUPELO, Miss.—Dr. Gordon Whyte (left), program director and professor with the Executive Master's of Public Health in Health Services Administration program at the University of Southern Mississippi, talks with Linda Wright (far right), social services coordinator at Baldwin Nursing Facility, and Ayesha Fountain, rehab technician with North Mississippi Medical Center's Acute Rehabilitation Department in Tupelo, during the NMMC Career Fair. Sponsored April 29 by the Employment Services Department, the Career Fair was open for all employees and their families to explore continuing educational opportunities.