

February 18, 2010
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH PHOTO
CONTACT: DEBORAH ROBERTS PUGH
(662) 377-3712

TUPELO, Miss.—North Mississippi Medical Center employees Ann Carter (center) of Central Sterile Processing, Cherry Owens (left) of Recovery Room and Sharon Wax of 3 South check out the chocolate fountain during the Chocolate Walk sponsored by the Human Resources Team on Feb. 12 to benefit Project Hope. For a donation, participants could sample a host of homemade chocolate treats or purchase whole cakes and other goodies. The event raised $1,100 for Project Hope and made for many happy customers. Festival of Hope is scheduled for 6-10 p.m. Friday, Feb. 26, at Tupelo Furniture Market Building 5.