TAMMY COBB NAMED NMMC-PONTOTOC EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR

PONTOTOC, Miss.— Tammy Cobb, a certified nursing assistant and unit coordinator for Emergency Services, was selected Employee of the Year for 2010 at North Mississippi Medical Center-Pontotoc.

Cobb is a Pontotoc resident who joined NMMC-Pontotoc in 2007. She said she enjoys her work in the Emergency Department. “The best part of my job is getting to meet different people.”

In her Employee of the Quarter nomination, Cobb was described as a continuous bundle of motion. “Tammy is a very dedicated and diligent employee and coworker. She demonstrates impeccable work ethics and has a high level of integrity,” a coworker wrote in her nomination.

“Tammy goes above and beyond her job,” another coworker wrote. “She is very knowledgeable and always willing to assist when needed. She takes care of each and every patient with a smile and a personality that would light up even the gloomiest of situations.”

She and her husband Kevin have two children, son Brandon, 15, and daughter Ali-Claire, 20 months. The family attends Piney Grove Baptist Church.

In her spare time, Cobb enjoys swimming, gardening and spending time with her children.
