DR. GRAYDEN TUBB TO RETIRE FROM FULTON MEDICAL CLINIC

FULTON, Miss. – After almost a half century of service, Grayden A. Tubb, M.D., is retiring. Sept. 30.

“Dr. Tubb has devoted his life to serving the people of Itawamba County. His legacy of providing 47 years of high quality health care will live on long after he has retired,” said David Barber, president of North Mississippi Medical Clinics. “He is a true servant leader in every sense of the word, and his leadership and service to the people of this region and our entire organization will be sorely missed.”

Fulton Medical Clinic is one of more than 30 medical clinics throughout north Mississippi and northwest Alabama affiliated with North Mississippi Medical Clinics.

A native of Hatley, Dr. Tubb and his wife, Mavis, moved to Fulton in 1963. He was in private practice until 1994, when he joined Fulton Medical Clinic. “I would like to thank my patients for their loyalty and friendship over the last 47 years,” Dr. Tubb said. “It has been my pleasure and an honor to serve your health care needs.”

Dr. Tubb is an Ole Miss graduate and completed his medical studies at the University of Mississippi School of Medicine. While serving in the U.S. Navy, he completed his internship at the U.S. Naval Hospital in San Diego, Calif.

He is board certified by the American Board of Family Practice and holds membership in the American Medical Association and the Mississippi State Medical Association.

He and his wife have two children and three grandchildren. During retirement he hopes to do some traveling.
