

February 26, 2010

M E D I A   A D V I S O R Y

TUPELO, Miss.—Harlem Globetrotter Herbert “Moo Moo” Evans will visit patients at North Mississippi Medical Center on Monday, March 1.

Evans will visit pediatric patients at 1 p.m. and then perform for adult rehabilitation patients at 1:30 p.m.

A native of Millington, Tenn., Evans is in his fifth season with the Globetrotters. He excelled on the court at Raleigh-Egypt High School, garnering all-metro, all-district and all-state tournament honors – as well as selections as a Nike All-Star and in the Tennessee East/West All-Star game – and was a McDonald’s All-American finalist.

Evans went on to Troy University in Alabama, where he helped lead the Trojans to the school’s first ever appearance in the NCAA tournament in 2003, one of his fondest sports memories.

To accompany Evans on this visit, please join us in the NMMC front lobby shortly before 1 p.m. For more information, call Deborah Roberts Pugh at (662) 377-3712.