TUPELO, Miss.—Kohl's A-Team members recently presented Kohl's Cares for Kids stuffed animals to participants in the HipHoppers program, interactive story time sessions that encourage healthy imaginative play for preschoolers and their grown-ups, at HealthWorks! HipHoppers (front row, from left) Lanie White, Melanie White, Cooper Jones, Gavin Hawkins, Ivy Kate Benjamin, Maddox Potts and Kayla Potts enjoyed the visit from A-Team members (back row, from left) store manager Christen Benefield, Robbie Ryder, Sharron Ward and Justin Pender. During their visit, Kohl's A-Team members also made wacky hats for the HipHoppers and prepared materials for the Tupelo Public School District and HealthWorks!'s 2010 Summer Demonstration Project Grant.
