TUPELO, Miss.—Two representatives from the Tupelo Hog Roasters recently presented $2,200 checks to representatives from three groups, North Mississippi Medical Center Hospice, NMMC Cancer Center Patient Assistance Fund and the American Cancer Society.

The Health Care Foundation of North Mississippi will manage the monies donated to the two NMMC groups. The awards were made possible from the proceeds of the annual Tupelo Hog Roasters Cookout and other fund-raising projects over the last year.
