TUPELO, Miss.—Roselyn Campbell (far right) of North Mississippi Medical Center's Employment Services Department recently presented $2,000 college scholarships to (from left) Brittany Clayton of Mooreville High School, Alicia King of Shannon High School and Anna Claire Robinson of Saltillo High School. Evan Houston of Tupelo High School and Raven Parker of Baldwyn High School also each received a $2,000 scholarship.

The annual scholarships are awarded through the Health Care Foundation of North Mississippi to graduating high school seniors pursuing a health care career. Applicants are judged on ACT score, high school transcript, curriculum taken as it pertains to the chosen field, extracurricular activities, letters of recommendation, interview and their personal statements.
