

October 1, 2010
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WITH LOGO
CONTACT: DEBORAH ROBERTS PUGH
(662) 377-3712

RALLY FOR THE CURE TENNIS TOURNEY TO BENEFIT BREAST CANCER GROUP

TUPELO, Miss.—Tupelo Tennis Association is hosting the first-ever Rally for the Cure tennis tournament Oct. 15-17 at Rob Leake Tennis Courts, Tupelo City Park.

Proceeds from the tournament benefit Susan G. Komen North Mississippi for the Cure®. Participants can choose from men's and women's singles, doubles and mixed events, with a limit of two divisions. The entry fee is $30 for singles and $50 per team for doubles.

Matches will be the best two out of three sets with a 10-point match tie breaker in lieu of third set. USTA rules and regulations will govern play.

Registration forms are available at area tennis clubs and parks and recreation departments, or by calling Angie Stafford at (662) 401-5338. Entry deadline is Monday, Oct. 11.

Awards will be given for winner, runner-up and consolation winner in each division.

Matches will begin at 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 15. The tournament schedule will be posted at Rob Leake City Park and at www.tupeloparkrec.com by Thursday, Oct. 14.

Sponsors for Rally for the Cure include BancorpSouth, Cellular South, Sanders Clinic for Women, Tupelo Country Club H.I.T.T. Squad, Tupelo Endodontics and Urology Professional Association. Pink tennis balls are being provided by the Lilly Co. and Surgery Associates. Memory and celebration signs are being provided by Stafford Developments.