FREE WEIGHT LOSS SURGERY SEMINAR IN STARKVILLE

STARKVILLE, Miss.—North Mississippi Medical Center will sponsor a free seminar on Weight Loss Surgery Options from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 26. The seminar will be held at MedNOW, located in the Premier Health Complex, 1207 Hwy. 182 West.

Terry Pinson, M.D., medical director of the NMMC Bariatric Center, will speak. Interested individuals may bring one guest. Topics will include weight loss surgery's health benefits and risks; different types of weight loss surgery; who is a good candidate; questions to ask a physician; what to expect before, during and after surgery; advanced techniques and technologies; and insurance coverage.

Attendance at a seminar is mandatory prior to an initial consultation at the NMMC Bariatric Clinic. Call (662) 377-SLIM (377-7546) or 1-866-908-9465 to register or for more information.
