WEST POINT, Miss.—Cedric and Shay King won the silent auction for this wreath donated by North Mississippi Medical Center Laboratory employees including (from left) Aleah Arney, Cheryl Lowe, Carolyn Johnson, Tamilla Quinn and Charlotte McClure. Twenty-one wreaths were donated to the silent auction, with $1,103 in proceeds benefiting the NMMC-West Point Diabetes Assistance Fund. Raising the most money were wreaths designed by Medical Staff Coordinator Lisa Clark, first place; Respiratory Therapy Department, second place; and Administration, third place. In addition, chances were sold for items donated by local businesses Culin-Arts, Rose Drug Store, Annabelle's Antique Mall and Petal Pushers. For more information about the NMMC-West Point Diabetes Assistance Fund, call (662) 495-2213.
