WEST POINT, Miss.—Amy Mobley (center) of North Mississippi Medical Center-West Point's Surgery Department, won first place as Frosty the Snowman in the hospital's Dress Like Christmas contest Dec. 17. Frosty needed help from coworkers (from left) Cheryl Young, Carolyn Shelton, Brenda Taylor, Carrie Hall and Nakisha Keys to get around without "melting." Second place in the Dress Like Christmas contest went to "Elf" Samantha Thompson of the Business Office, while third went to "Santa" David Thomason of Materiels Management. Hospital employees can wear a Christmas T-shirt every Friday during December, culminating with the annual Dress Like Christmas contest the day of the Christmas luncheon.
